2 Youths Killed In Auto Plunge

SANDPOINT, Idaho, Aug. 1 (AP) A new automobile they were trying out hurtled James Madison, 19, of Sandpoint, and Raymond S. Skogland, 23, of Astoria, Or., to their deaths in Chuck slough near here today.

Madison's back was broken and Skogland's head and chest were crushed.

Sheriff Warren Rapp said the car, traveling at high speed, skidded 50 feet, broke a large cement culvert and plunged into the slough. Both youths were hurled through the left front door.

Skogland, Madison's cousin, had arrived from Astoria yesterday.
